

Road Side Advertising

Apart from being England's oldest agricultural show we are also County Durham's largest show and our fantastic visitor numbers are growing year on year (even allowing for adverse weather!) which makes us an ideal partner to showcase your business with.

After the great success of last year we are going to be utilising our road side signage in the run up to our show again. This will bring us - and your business - to the attention of tens of thousands of potential visitors and we will be using sites beyond our usual catchment area to attract new visitors. These signs are sturdy all weather panels similar in size to For Sale signs and will be on view for approximately one month before the show.
